

[about the band]

WaveSauce, an instrumental pulp | surf | spyfi band. With the unique sounds of the Theremin — this band is sure to intrigue.

The ethereal Theremin, vintage guitar tone, and powerful rhythm give this band a tasty, reverbified edge that sets them apart from the rest. WaveSauce delivers unique originals, creative renditions of traditional surf, spiced with their very own spyfi-pulp flavor.

Beginning this musical venture as a surf duo, guitarist, Pete Vercellotti and thereminist, Michele "Cookie" Heile formed WaveSauce in the Spring of 2007. Now a dynamic 4-piece with Joel Boutwell on Bass Guitar and Doug Powers on Drums.

WaveSauce has found influence in The Seeds, The Greenhorns, Blue Hawaiians, Laika and the Kosmonauts, Man or Astro-man?, The Ventures, Jerry Cole, Dick Dale, Clara Rockmore, Leon Theremin, Devo, Surf, Pulp Fiction, Film Noir, B-Rated Horror and Scifi, Lounge, 60s Garage Rock, Exotica, Biker and Hot Rod Films.
