

Welcome to the Warch Campus Center & Bon Appétit

*Conference and learning center.
Gathering space for corporate meetings, community organizations and private events.
Impeccable cuisine.
Superb views.*

Nearly 20 years in the making, the $35 million, 107,000-square-foot Richard and Margot Warch Campus Center opened in September 2009. The building embraces the beauty of the surrounding Fox River with its open spaces and high ceilings, amazing views, natural stone, green roof and access to a river walk. Offering 10 magnificent informal and formal gathering spaces for groups of all sizes, the Warch Campus Center truly has something for everyone. Designed for versatility, each room provides flexible setups depending on individual needs.

This LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design)-certified Gold facility was awarded the “2009 Best Building in Wisconsin” by The Daily Reporter and Wisconsin Builder Magazine. The Warch Campus Center was designed, built, and is operated in an environmentally responsible way.

Onsite catering managers and chefs, paired with the superb capabilities of Bon Appétit Management Company, ensure all food, beverage and bar details are expertly managed. Event planners have a wide range of catering options that are sure to exceed the expectations of guests.

Extraordinary signature spaces

The Somerset Room is one of the most sought-after meeting venues in the Fox Cities

View of the Somerset Room from the Nathan Marsh Pusey Room

The Nathan Marsh Pusey Room provides an elegant setting for meetings or business receptions

These formal gathering spaces of the University can be utilized individually or combined to accommodate larger meetings and banquets. Both rooms are equipped with state of the art A/V inputs and lighting. The Somerset Room features a maple floor, vaulted ceiling and a wall of floor-to ceiling windows overlooking the Fox River. The Nathan Marsh Pusey Room is adorned with a rich quarter-sawn cherry interior, a cozy fireplace and breathtaking views and can be reserved for small meetings, receptions, recitals and intimate dinners.
