

Hooray for Holly-Weird OR Jeepers, Creepers, How'd You Get So Dead??

The nation has waited with sheer bated breath for the worldwide release of Cecil B. DePill's latest theatrical marvel, and everyone is here to celebrate, including the Hollywood elite: Joan Crawfish, Kate Hipbone and the director who made it all possible, Cecil B. DePill himself. In fact, Cecil is looking for big stars...and maybe a few extras, to fill his next epic blockbuster, "The Wind Be Gone," set to film in amazing Cinemascope. Miss Crawfish and Miss Hipbone are vying for the coveted role of Scarlett N'Osehaira, and are actually auditioning tonight. But, as the night progresses, strange goings-on are afoot. Even...murder! Hollywood is turning into Holly-Weird, and it's up to the remaining guests to solve the crime and figure out what will become of "The Wind Be Gone." Because tomorrow ain't just another day!

Poor Thurston Bowells III has been found decidedly deceased in his study on this dark and stormy night. Detective Elliott Less has assembled all the Bowells Manor guests together to try and figure out just who wanted ole' Thurston kaput. Was it Lucy, his haughty horror of a wife? Harry, his unkempt, uncivilized brother? Maybe Ms. Dover, the yippy, dippy sweeper? Join Det. Less as he uses his early 20th-century skills, carefully re-enacting each suspect's tale using the willing dedication of the Manor guests.

Actors With a Clue! will create custom story lines and bring sound system and mics, music, all props, scripts, pens, ballots, audience actor prizes, etc.

Cost of Each Show: $800
Restaurants: Starts at
