

Statement of Qualification

Fusion Security Solutions is a small, woman owned security company with offices in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Austin, Florida, Costa Rica and Panama. The company specializes in providing hi-tech solutions for commercial, government, and private sector clients. Fusion prides itself on ingenuity, customer service, and a “can-do” attitude.

Owner Stephanie Clacks attitude is, “If our customers have a security problem, we WILL find the solution to solve the problem”.

The Fusion Security Solutions team is comprised of former Law Enforcement, Security, Military, and engineering professionals who have dedicated themselves to providing solutions to unique security, threat, and vulnerability issues.

The team draws from decades of experience in investigations for the Texas Department of Public Safety, extensive experience in Security and Law Enforcement technology and applications, and global applications of personal and asset protection.

Our team consists of:

(2) Retired senior investigators for the Texas Department of Public Safety. These individuals hold Special Ranger ranks with the Department, and currently advise the State of Texas on security issues.

(1) Renowned polygraph expert

(1) Renowned threat and vulnerability expert

(1) Renowned Counter Surveillance Detection Expert

(6) Former Special Operations instructors and government contractors

The Fusion Team has protected Presidents and First Lady’s, Congressmen, Governors, Fortune 500 Executives, NBA MVP’s, musicians and other high net-worth individuals. Fusion also offers protection for these individuals traveling to high-threat areas globally.

The Fusion Team also consists of security hardware installers, security officers, personal protection personnel, investigators, and product support personnel.
