Culinarians:

Our Culinary Approach:

At Yacht Events LLC, food and the exquisite execution of its service are our passion. Our approach is decidedly different. What sets us apart is our unique and singular emphasis on “private dining”. Absent the daily distraction of restaurant/hotel service, our Executive Chef and his handpicked team are solely focused on crafting original menus and culinary experiences tailored to exceed the personal dining expectations of you and your guests. With a local farm/sea- to-table philosophy, our dining experiences are customized to your tastes and desires. Our culinary team eagerly awaits the opportunity to showcase an unforgettable event for you and your guests, drawing from the freshest local ingredients that our bountiful region has to offer. Our service tells the rest of the story.

While the core of our signature menu is Hudson Valley cuisine, our culinarians have the flexibility to produce menus of a much broader spectrum and delight in customizing menus that reflect your ideas and personal style.

+ With a local farm & sea to-table philosophy...

25 years of achievements in the luxury yacht and hospitality industries

About Steven Tanzman

With more than 25 years of achievements in the luxury yacht and hospitality industries, Steven Tanzman has a rare depth of experience in the flawless execution of one-of-a-kind elegant events.

Founded in 2003, his company, Yacht Events LLC, coordinates five-star cuisine, service and staged entertainment aboard world-class yachts along the East Coast. Clients and guests include billionaire George Soros, mogul Donald Trump, fashion icon Donna Karan, the Saudi Arabian Royal family, United Nations ambassadors and several world champion teams of the NFL-NBA-NHL and MLB.

As president of Yacht Events, Mr. Tanzman regularly navigates the course separating success from failure, where months or sometimes years of planning come down to a few hours with countless details perfectly executed. He always meets the challenge, whether it's a private yacht sailing to an unconventional docking spot or hundreds of staff and rentals coordinated and brought to an island accessible only by ferry. His events range from small family or corporate celebrations to large galas with more than 2,000 guests.

Clients praise Mr. Tanzman for being "beyond accommodating," "thoroughly professional," "exceeding expectations" and having a calming presence under pressure while coordinating the many moving parts that contribute to a successful event. Catering Trends Magazine named him "one of the leading consultants in the hospitality industry." Twice the highly acclaimed Biz Bash organization recognized him as one of the top 10 event producers in New York City.

Before launching Yacht Events, Mr. Tanzman headed sales and operations for such exclusive venues as the New York Palace Hotel, the 24 Fifth Avenue Ballroom and the Pleasantdale Chateau, in addition to World Yacht, which set the standard for fine dining aboard luxury yachts. As a teenager in his native New York, Mr. Tanzman began working his way up quickly in the hospitality industry. Before the age of 21, he was promoted from Maitre D' to Sales Manager at Singers Resort in the highly competitive New York City special events market. When he is not working, He enjoys Napa wines, Kentucky bourbons and vintage cigars at great restaurants during his travels.
