

The Victorian Mansion Experience

Picture yourself entering an enchanted world of Romance and Magic. Step onto historic St. Charles Avenue with its giant oak trees shading the House of Broel's Victorian Mansion, lovingly restored to its nineteenth century splendor. Arrive at the grand entry where the hostess invites you into another time. You become enveloped in a blend of antiques, crystal chandeliers and fragrant flowers-all creating an atmosphere unique in the entire world.

Whether you are planning an intimate wedding for two or a party for two hundred, shouldn't the setting be as singularly special as you? For many years, the House of Broel has been providing expert catering services for all occasions in an enchanted site right on the historic St. Charles Avenue streetcar line.

Known throughout the city for its warmth and charm, the House of Broel's Victorian Mansion provides one of the most sought after locations for intimate weddings and private parties. The menu is a wonderful selection of Creole delicacies with a bounty of hand passed hors d'oeuvres and both a hot and cold buffet.

In addition to a magnificent home for your event, your guests can enjoy visiting the extensive Dollhouse Museum. Ms. Broel's private collection of dollhouses, from an English Manor House to a Victorian Villa, is world renowned. Additionally, she has an impressive selection of porcelain dolls depicting brides through the century.

The staff of the Victorian Mansion is hand selected for their skill and their willingness to please. They take great pride in making certain they get to know you in order to provide you with everything you might need-from a special desert to a specific music selection-all at a price you can afford.

We look forward to hosting your next special event.
