I have always been interested in finding the longest married couple attending your special day. I would like to ask for permission to invite all the married couples to the dance floor for a few dance songs. Once I have the floor filled with all married couples, I will start calling couples off the dance floor starting with one year married. Once I find the longest married couple we will ask them their advice to a long happy marriage.

Would it be appropriate to accommodate this into your reception? Yes ____ No ____
