Recording

We use Logic Pro 9 for multi-track recording in our live room and can record a maximum of 24 tracks simultaneously. For mixing and mastering we use ProTools HD10.

We charge $50 to run the recording gear and give you the raw tracks in .wav format so you can mix it yourself. If you want us to mix it for you, you will only be charged our studio rate for the mixing process which is as follows:

$75 for 1 hour
$250 for 4 hours
$370 for 6 hours
$450 for 8 hours

It typically takes an average of 6 hours to mix a one hour set.

Alcohol

Beer & Wine only. No hard alcohol of any kind. No outside alcohol permitted. All alcohol to be provided by Red House. Beer & Wine menus available upon request but are subject to change.

Option 1: Red House provides our regular beer and wine selection for sale to guests at the bar.

Option 2: Per client request, Red House provides a certain number of drink tickets per guest that can be used to purchase any items that have been approved by the client. Red House staff keeps track of what is bought with each ticket to provide a final tally and bar cost to be paid by the client at the end of the rental. Guests who have run out of tickets may continue to purchase drinks at their own cost.

Option 3: Red House provides a number of cases of wine and/or kegs of beer to be prepaid by the client and served at no cost to guests in attendance. Please note: Alcohol may not be taken off premises, therefore any leftover alcohol cannot be sent home with client.
