CATERING POLICIES

1. Meeting room reservations will become guaranteed only upon the receipt of a signed contract and valid credit card number. Cancellations must be received 30 days prior to the scheduled event in order to avoid a cancellation fee in the amount of the full room rental. Meeting space not confirmed with a signed contract is subject to release.
2. Menu selections, meeting room set-up requirements and all arrangements must be received no later than 7 days prior to the function. If changes are made on the day of the function, additional labor charges may apply.
3. We require a guarantee of the number of people that will be in attendance for all food and beverage functions no later than 72 hours prior to the scheduled event. If this count is not received, you will be held responsible for the original count of the contract. We will prepare 5% over the guaranteed number. If more people attend, we will make a concerted effort to feed everyone. In some instances, the original menu may be impossible to duplicate and substitutions will be made. If event is cancelled within 48 hours of the scheduled event, you will be billed for the full room rental. We will also take the food count given and charge 50% of the food costs. This will be billed to the credit card on file.
4. Meeting rooms are assigned by the number of people anticipated to attend. We reserve the right to reassign meeting locations to a room suitable for the attendance. Meetings lasting beyond the agreed time will be charged $75.00 per hour.
5. An 18% service charge and applicable taxes will be added to all food and beverage items. All catering charges will be on a cash, check or credit card basis upon completion of the event unless prior direct billing arrangements have been approved. Direct billing terms: payable upon receipt of invoice, net cash.
6. According to state liquor regulations, we have the obligation to refuse service to any guest that appears visibly intoxicated. We also have an obligation and right to check all ID's.
7. Regulations, for health and safety reasons, prohibit us from allowing any food or beverage to be brought in or taken off the premises.
8. Security in the conference/exhibit area is the responsibility of the group. Clarion Inn will not be held responsible for merchandise or articles left on the premises at any time. There may be some functions which the hotel may require the guest to obtain bonded security personnel.
9. Caution is requested in attaching items to walls or doors. Please contact the Catering Department for assistance. Under no circumstances are nails, tacks or pins to be placed in the wall. Damage resulting from improper attachment is the responsibility of the guest.
10. With prior notice, we will be happy to receive and store your conference materials at no charge if received less than one week prior to the function. Shipments should be addressed to the Director of Catering and must include names and dates of the conference. They will be delivered to your meeting room at the proper time.
11. Use of pool and other recreational facilities are restricted to sleeping room guests only.
12. Room charges for meetings and banquets include complete set up and cleanup by our professional staff. We provide tables, chairs, linens, flatware, dishes, glassware and a limited supply of centerpieces and candles. We also provide pens, notepads, lecterns, stages, easels, extension cords, power strips, table skirting, ceiling hangers and other miscellaneous items. AV equipment is available for a fee. Any additional items necessary that the hotel does not own, will be the guests responsibility to reimburse the hotel at cost.
13. We reserve the right to cancel any event if it is deemed to be in the best interests of the hotel or our community.
14. Your event pricing structure is based on a count of _____ people. If your count falls below _____ people, pricing will revert to our standard rates at the judgment of the hotel.
15. If either party asserts Force Majeure as an excuse for failure to perform the party's obligation, then the nonperforming party must prove that the party took reasonable steps to minimize delay or damages caused by foreseeable events, that the party substantially fulfilled all non-excused obligations, and that the other party was timely notified of the likelihood or actual occurrence of an event described in Force Majeure. If Force Majeure is found to exist, then neither party will be held responsible for any monies due for cancelation fees or for breach of contract.
