

WELCOME TO
WINTERTHUR MUSEUM &
COUNTRY ESTATE

Nestled in the heart of Delaware's picturesque Brandywine Valley, Winterthur Museum & Country Estate stands a world set apart - a place where history lives on in spectacular gardens, romantic landscapes, and a breathtaking mansion filled with magnificent American antiques.

Once the grand country estate of Henry Francis du Pont, the 175-room house remains a rare national treasure, where beauty, art, and history combine. The garden Mr. du Pont created is a masterful example of naturalistic design, delighting and inspiring visitors in every season. Set amid nearly 1,000 acres of rolling pasture, the garden is the ideal locale for an equally memorable wedding celebration or special event.

A photograph of a wedding couple in a window at Winterthur Museum & Country Estate. The bride is wearing a white strapless dress and holding a large white bouquet. The groom is wearing a black tuxedo with a white shirt and a black bow tie. They are standing on a stone ledge in front of a large, arched window. The window is open, and the couple is looking out. The interior of the house is visible through the window, showing a chandelier and a large mirror. The exterior of the house is made of light-colored stone. To the left of the house is a large, leafy tree. In the foreground, there are green bushes with some yellow flowers. The text "WINTERTHUR MUSEUM & COUNTRY ESTATE" is overlaid on the bottom left of the image in a white, serif font.
