what brides are saying

"From the minute we arrived on the grounds of the Historic Yellow Springs, we knew that the place had captured our hearts. An 18th-Century manor with stone structures dating to the Revolutionary War, it has all of the charm that we could ever ask for in a wedding venue; nature, history, coziness and warmth. We did not need to see another venue after this one. On the day of the event, the Yellow Springs' staff was very attentive to our needs and willing to adjust at a moment's notice when our plans changed. We were grateful for everything that Jen (and Brittany) did for us! Everyone at this venue was unbelievable friendly and helpful. The Yellow Springs will always have a special place in our hearts."

"We just had our wedding here on 8/27/16 and absolutely loved it! Brittany was a pleasure to work with and very professional! The venue is perfect just the way it is and needs little to no decorations! Absolutely perfect for a small-medium sized budget. It's beautiful any time of year and has a great plan b option! All of our guests were stunned by its beauty and we received compliment after compliment. We'd get married here all over again!"

Maureen, 8.27.16

"We had our wedding here May 2016, and it was absolutely perfect. Everything about this venue is beautiful. From the time I booked the venue, Brittany was great at responding to emails and making sure everything was perfect. It rained on our wedding day, so it was great having the extra room for the ceremony! I couldn't imagine getting married anywhere else. The venue has so much history to it, that our guests really enjoyed walking around during cocktail hour. Everyone still talks about how beautiful the venue was. It was truly a magical day, and I'm so glad all my wedding memories are at HYS."

Cassie, 5.1.16

"The Washington was everything my husband and I had ever dreamed of and so much more. When we got engaged, we knew we wanted something unique, something us, someplace no one had ever been. We wanted our guests to walk into our venue and say 'WOW this is so Matt and Erin.' Mission accomplished! This was our one and only venue we toured. From the gorgeous courtyard where we were married, to the ruins where we took pictures, to the gorgeous reception space with its stunning original hardwoods and beautiful chandeliers, it was everything we had hoped to find. Working with Allie was a dream - she transitioned out right before our wedding but their current venue manager, Brittany was absolutely wonderful and picked up where Allie left off seamlessly. Getting ready that day was so wonderful thanks to the beautiful bridal suite and my hubby-to-be was thrilled to have the groom's suite. We had viewed several online that provided no where for him to get ready - it's his day too! That was a must for us. Our guests loved wandering the property during cocktail hour and could not get over how beautiful The Washington is. We could not have asked for a more perfect day or a more perfect venue. I wish I could do it all over again!"
