Ball-Eddleman-McFarland

Experience the elegance of the 1899 McFarland House, Fort Worth's second landmark, featuring exquisite patterned floors of exotic woods, a wrap-around porch of Georgian marble, coffered ceilings with rim lighting, and an extensive, bricked carriage driveway for tents and dancing. Your guests will appreciate McFarland's secluded setting located between downtown hotels and Fort Worth's Cultural District. If it's the second time around, think of McFarland House first.

Front and Back Parlor

Up to 50 chairs can be set up in the front and back parlors with the center aisle to form an intimate setting for your ceremony.

Dining Room

The dining room makes the perfect location for buffet style service.

Brick Patio and Marble Porch

Tables can be set up inside, on the wrap around marble porch, on the grass in the front yard or on the original 1899 beautiful brick patio. Dancing can take place in designated areas on the exterior of the property.

Make memories for your special day that stand the test of time at this beautiful 1899 cattle baron mansion.
