Vancouver's story begins at MOV.

Venue Rentals

The Museum of Vancouver is a unique and important historical venue. Built for Canada's centennial and opened in 1968, the building is one of Vancouver's architectural gems, making it a one-of-kind venue to host a myriad of special events, receptions and business meetings.

Situated in Vanier Park near Kitsilano Beach, just minutes from downtown, the Museum boasts stellar views of English Bay, Stanley Park, and the North Shore mountains. The Museum's variety of special exhibitions and programs means there's always an inspiring energy within its walls.

Our dedicated Venue Rentals Department strives to provide you and your guests with exceptional service and a memorable event experience.

Catering

The Butler Did It Catering Co. is our preferred caterer and has earned a reputation as one of Vancouver's premier caterers by offering consistent, reliable service with high quality food and a sense of style and flair – all at a reasonable price.

With over 20 years of catering experience, they have catered every type of event: Weddings, lunch n' learns, fundraising galas, concerts, cocktail parties, holiday parties, breakfast banquets, BBQs, grand openings, corporate picnics, and more.

The Butler Did It Catering has a variety of classic and seasonal menus to choose from that will satisfy any taste or budget. Their menus are created with fresh, local ingredients and inspired by West Coast flavours. They have the ability to accommodate most dietary restrictions and are happy to customize any menu to suit your event and guests.

Going Green

Being eco-friendly is important to The Butler Did It. They are proud to offer a full line disposable plates and cutlery that are completely compostable and biodegradable. As an alternative, they have a line of palm leaf plates and bowls and they offer a full line of dishware, cutlery and glassware rentals.
