

The background image shows the interior of a museum. In the foreground, there are several rows of dark wooden folding chairs. To the left, a large, thick wooden pillar stands. In the middle ground, a large, circular, light-colored object, possibly a book cover or a piece of equipment, is visible. The background features large windows and a bright, well-lit space. A red banner with white text is overlaid in the center.

*AMERICAN
BOOKBINDERS
MUSEUM*

meeting | reception | pop-up | party | offsite

AMERICAN BOOKBINDERS MUSEUM

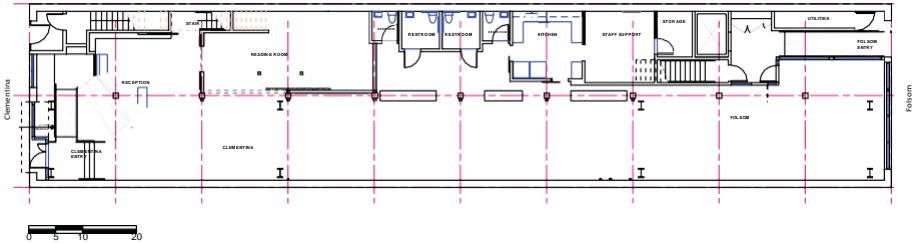

This venue is conveniently located in the heart of San Francisco's SOMA/Yerba Buena district. The museum's urban-contemporary space accommodates corporate and social events, receptions and meetings for up to 112 guests.

FEATURES

- Modern-industrial building with high ceilings and lots of natural light
- A single level of versatile event space that can be divided for separate experiences
- On-site catering preparation space
- AV setup including projector, screen and wi-fi surround speaker system
- On-site event support
- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- Walking distance to Moscone Convention Center and MUNI/BART

AMERICAN
BOOKBINDERS
MUSEUM

RENTAL LOCATION

854 Folsom Street
San Francisco

CAPACITY

112 standing
75 theater style
2,625 sq ft

RENTAL INFORMATION

Madeleine Robins |
415.824.9754

rental@bookbindersmuseum.org
www.bookbindersmuseum.org