Our Professional Staff will be happy to meet with you to discuss the formats, contests and the scheduling of your event. Below are some of examples with explanations of formats and on course contests:

Scoring Formats & Contests

Scramble

This format is great for building camaraderie. Each foursome plays as a team, every player hits their shot and the best shot is selected. All four players play their second shot from that point and the best shot is selected again, playing that way until the ball is holed. There are several variations and rules that can be applied to this format.

Best Ball of Four

This format is a more traditional form of team play. Each player plays their own ball for entire round; the best score of the four players is taken on each hole. Handicaps are recommended for this format to make it fair for all players.

2 Best Balls of Four

Same format as above, but the 2 best scores on each hole are kept.

Shamble

This is a great format to use when many of your group wants to play their own ball. Every player hits from the tee ground and the best shot is selected. All four players then play their own ball until it is holed out, counting either 1 or 2 best balls of the group.

Calloway Scoring

A scoring format that deducts a certain number of holes based on a player gross score. This is a fair format for a field of players with a wide variety of handicaps. This alleviates the need to finding and verifying all players' handicaps. Variations – Blind Calloway.

Closest to the Pin

Contest is usually held on par 3's. Whoever puts their tee shot closest to the hole during the event wins a prize. We have 4 par 3's at SFCC; Holes # 4, 7, 14 & 16.

Long Drive

Contest usually held on longer holes, winner is the player that hits the longest drive that finishes their own fairway. We suggest hole #3 for this contest.

Straightest Drive

Contest usually held on a longer hole, the winner is the player whose tee shot comes closest to the rope we have down the middle of the fairway. We suggest hole #10 for this contest.
