

THE BEN WEST PALM

AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION® HOTELS

The Ben is a boutique luxury hotel – part of the acclaimed Marriott Autograph Collection – that is unique in design with a distinct sense of place and mark of craft. Inspired by Byrd Dewey’s “Ben ‘Trovato” Estate, one of Palm Beach County’s original great homes, The Ben will bring to West Palm Beach what its name-sake is known for – being a notorious host and social facilitator.

Let The Ben tell your story...

Brand Story

EXACTLY LIKE NOTHING ELSE

Autograph Collection Hotels brings the art of storytelling to life by selecting hotels that are rich in craft and character, design, architecture and unexpected back-stories. Created for travelers who approach life like a master class and seek memorable and immersive travel experiences, no two hotels are the same. Every hotel celebrates artistry that surprises, inspires and delights and experiences that are exactly like nothing else.

BEN TROVATO ESTATE

- Victorian home built in 1892.
- The homeowners gave it the name Ben Trovato, literally meaning “well invented” or “well found”; the name is derived from se non è vero è ben trovato, an Italian phrase which means “Even if it isn’t true, it’s a good story”.
- Put West Palm Beach on the cultural map, entertaining luminaries like Henry Phipps Jr., Woodrow Wilson, and the Vanderbilts.
- A place for socialization, lively conversation, enjoyment and enrichment.

BYRD SPILMAN DEWEY

- Drawn to the magical, uninhibited land of South Florida in the late 1800’s—“a land of romance, fanned by mysterious spice-laden breezes”.
- Moved to West Palm Beach when only 200 people lived in all of South Florida.
- Published and celebrated author, including national best seller Bruno.
- Noted conservationist and animal lover.

Located a block from Clematis Street and Flagler Drive overlooking the Palm Harbor Marina, The Ben will be a gateway for an unconventional hotel experience that, much like the meaning of Ben Trovato,
will tell a “well invented” tale
— weaving a web of stories for guests to make their own.

A story well told...

Guestrooms

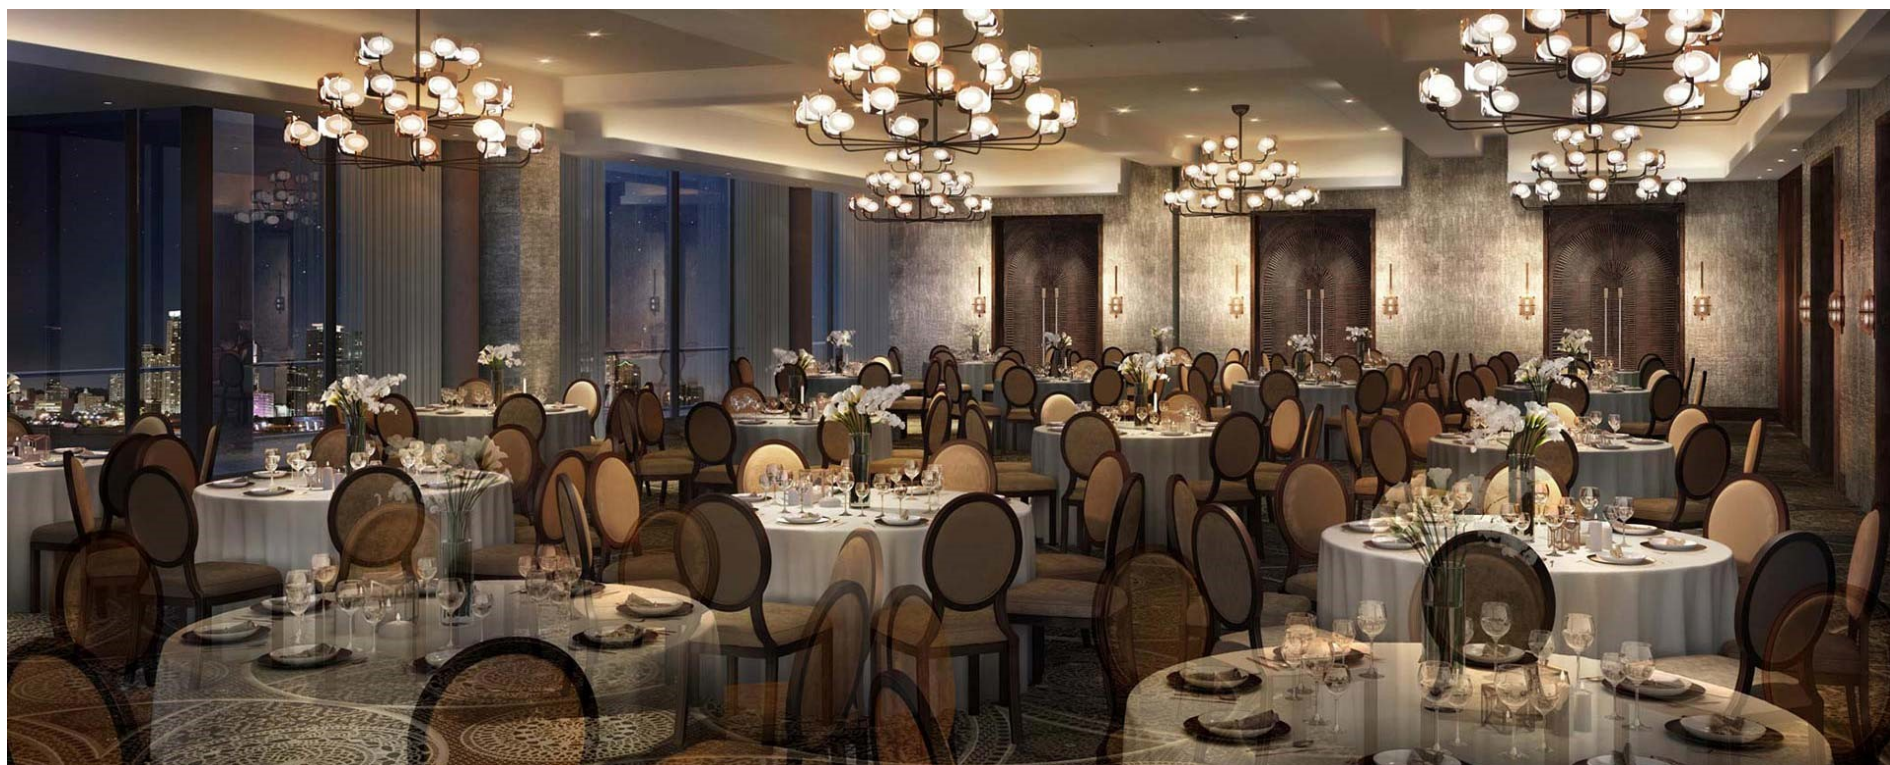

The Ben will feature 208 guest rooms including 12 suites. Many of our rooms have spectacular waterfront views and some showcase balconies where your guests can enjoy views of the Intercostal waterway and Palm Harbor Marina. Rooms include elevated luxury bedding packages, spa styled bath products, Nespresso coffee makers, and a décor package that represents our Palm Beach surroundings highlighting beautiful millwork, textures and artwork.

Event Details

Living up to its roots and identity as downtown West Palm's social hub, The Ben will feature 8,000 square feet of meeting and event spaces – from a traditional boardroom to a unique studio that provides a blank canvas for event planners and corporate leaders to let their creativity roam free. Featuring high ceilings, The Studio offers a flexible design allowing for dozens of room configurations. Because your events and meetings should never settle, The Ben's elegant rooftop 3,800 square foot Blue Heron Ballroom with jaw-dropping ocean views is the holy grail of event hosting and the basis of legendary events.
