

Relaxed Small Events, Personalized Service

"If you're looking for somewhere that you can be yourself, laugh and joke with everyone there, relax and keep the stress out of a wedding ... then we highly recommend you give Storybrook a visit! Their laid back persona mixed with their professionalism and attention to detail makes this the perfect venue for a wedding ...!" - Ryan and Megan

The Big Wedding Dilemma

Does the thought of a large wedding stress you out? Do you believe that your day should be what you want it to be and not what others expect, that you should be able to have a quality event without spending a fortune, and that you deserve to feel relaxed and prepared so you can fully enjoy and appreciate one of the most beautiful and significant moments in your life together?

We hear you. We've been there ourselves and we have been beside hundreds of other couples in similar situations. But by asking and learning about what people value most, we have designed an experience that lets you tune out the stress and focus on the most important thing of all: your love for one another.

So how do you go from a potentially stress-inducing experience to enjoying a laid-back, affordable and meaningful event? It's pretty simple: go with a Microwedding!

A Micro Solution

So what is a microwedding? These miniature affairs range from 2 to 24 people, including the couple. Think of them as a combination between an elopement and a regular wedding. They save you time, effort and money, and provide you with an experienced, friendly team to help you create a personalized and romantic occasion. It's all the flair of a wedding, made intimate with just your closest friends and family!

We've made these events as stress-free as possible for you by supplying almost everything you will need for your event including a ceremony in one of our gardens with an onsite officiant (unless you want to have a special someone in your group perform the service), a wedding cake, flowers for the couple, decor designed to your style preferences, a romantic reception dinner with Italian food (or upgrade and personalize your menu even more), and guidance from an experienced wedding planner from the time of booking through your event.

Our goal is to help you feel organized and prepared for your wedding day, sure in the knowledge that your event will be genuine and meaningful to you, and confident in knowing that you've made good choices all around — starting with the person you've chosen to spend the rest of your life with!

"We were beyond elated with every single second of our ceremony and reception. My husband and I will be forever grateful to the whole Storybrook crew for helping us have a fairytale wedding. They did not treat us as customers or guests, they treated us like family." - Bettina & Colby
