(Here we can insert the contact info and website you want to use.)

Resting on a lush green western edge of the Spring Hill College campus, Stewartfield is a Greek Revival raised cottage offering a captivating view down one of Mobile's landmarks, the century-old Avenue of the Oaks.

A long, spacious entrance hall welcomes guests inside the home and provides an appealing path of flow between the primary entertainment rooms at the front and rear of Stewartfield. Stately semi-circular ballroom at the rear comprise the largest formal dining and reception areas inside the home.

Tastefully decorated with complementary window treatments, the ballroom features an assortment of period antiques including a massive square piano and portraits of religious leaders associated with the College.

Outside is a beautifully landscaped patio, complete with iron tables and chairs, a decorative fountain and electrical access for music or a caterer's equipment.
