CULBERTSON MANSION
INDIANA STATE MUSEUM
HISTORIC SITE • NEW ALBANY

The versatility of our space makes the Culbertson Mansion State Historic Site suitable for a wide array of events. From baby showers to graduations or weddings and corporate events, people gather in New Albany's finest room for a most memorable experience.

With its hand-painted ceilings, carved staircase, marble fireplaces, and elaborate plasterwork, the Culbertson Mansion offers a one-of-a-kind setting for your special event. Like the Culbertson family and their guests, your guests will enjoy their experience at this historic venue. Once considered to be the wealthiest man in Indiana,

William S. Culbertson built his Gilded Age mansion to encompass more than 20,000 square footage within 25 rooms. The stunning architectural aesthetic, natural acoustics, and grand features ensure a unique & elegant backdrop inside the most striking home on Mansion Row.

WHAT SETS US APART

1. Beautiful and serene location.
 2. Elegant hand-painted walls and ceilings serve as a backdrop for your event.
 3. Many photo opportunities available inside and out.*
 4. Friendly & knowledgeable staff eager to tailor the space to each clients' needs.
- * Due to the nature of the hand painted architecture, no flash photography is allowed.
