

ANEDODI

Why choose between a barn wedding and a lake-view wedding when you can have both? Anedodi offers a spectacular lake-view pavilion, complete with chandeliers, and sleeps up to 17 people so you can spend longer with your closest friends and family members. On the lower level is a spacious open air deck, perfect for setting up your ceremony - and easily transformed into a dance floor under the stars as the evening progresses.

There is also a wraparound deck with a gable roof overlooking the lake, a lower covered deck, and 12 acres of beautiful rolling hills to provide a natural backdrop for your photos. How about a welcome cocktail by the pool? As the evening light grows dim, your guests will be enchanted by the twinkle of string lights overhead, and the warm glow of the pool lights changing colors.

ANEDODI

It couldn't be easier - included in the wedding package are chairs and tables for up to 100 guests, table linens, centerpieces, wedding blackboard, wedding arch, flowing white fabric, floral wedding swag for arch, and more. All the essentials will be there waiting for you, so you can set them up as you please - and enjoy the backyard wedding of your dreams.

We would be happy to recommend a local band or DJ, florist, caterer, cake baker, photographer, and officiant.

Should you need extra accommodation for your guests, there are cabins located within a 5 minute walk from Anedodi. There are many options for group activities during your wedding weekend, like a sunset pontoon ride perhaps.
