

Wedding Officiating Fees
Irene Swain, Non-Denominational Wedding Officiant

In order for me to offer you an exact fee for my services, please let me know the date, time, location and number of guests.

My fees range from 300-500 depending on the above. I ask for the location to let you know if there is a travel fee due to distance.

A non-refundable deposit holds your date and time. The remaining fee is due at our final meeting or at your wedding. If you need to change date or time and I am still available to officiate for you, I do honor your deposit.

All fees include:

An in person meeting, here in Oro Valley, to share your wedding vision and talk about my services and your ceremony, and to just “meet”. We can do this by phone too. I always offer a “meeting” just to see if you would like me to officiate for you, with no obligation to hire me.

Emailing of a wedding ceremony document, that has developed over these 30years (and continues) with a lovely wedding ceremony template and many choices of vows, ring blessings, poetry and readings

All the email and phone time it takes for us to, together, create your personal wedding ceremony to be perfect for you. I offer all the wisdom and experience from officiating and observing weddings, however, the final edit is always yours.

A final meeting here in Oro Valley, or by phone, to go over your wedding ceremony. We talk about the processional, recessional, flow of the ceremony, music and whatever else is important to you.

I come to your wedding 20-30 minutes prior (depending on number of guests) and connect with you, your photographer, planner (if there), and look over the ceremony area to see if any details need mentioning and all seems in order.

We sign the marriage license directly after your ceremony.

If you would like me to conduct a rehearsal for you, please ask. There is a fee from 125 -150. Travel fee may apply. I am happy to go over in detail all that is required by phone or at our final visit, if you would like to save this fee, ie. if your venue has a wedding co-ordinator, if you have a planner, or if your wedding processional is small and not in need of a rehearsal. Most important, whatever is comfortable for you.

Thank you, I appreciate your interest in my services!
