COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the recommended ages for a Zoo party? We recommend our parties for children ages 2-10.

How long does the birthday party last? Party activities average one and a half to two hours long.

How many guests do I need for the party, and what is maximum number of guests? Birthday parties require a minimum of 15 guests, and a maximum of 25 guests. This includes any combination of adults and children.

Can I bring in outside food to feed my adult guests? Outside food and beverage is not permitted.

Some of my guests are Zoo Members, does this change the price of my guests? All guests have the same pricing, regardless of their own Membership status. The host of the party does, however, receive a Member discount on the price of the party package if they themselves are a Member.

What decorations can I bring in? Decorations are permitted with the exception of confetti and balloons due to the safety of the animals.

Can I take home leftover food from the party? All party favors as well as any leftover dessert can be taken home.
