

Weddings and Receptions at the Sanguinetti House Museum and Gardens

Say “I Do” at the enchanted Sanguinetti House Museum and Gardens.

Tucked behind a vine-covered archway in the heart of downtown Yuma is the charming Sanguinetti House Museum and Gardens — the Jewel of Historic Yuma. The Sanguinetti House Museum is a cherished page in Yuma’s history books.

Former proprietor, E. F. Sanguinetti (1867-1945), is recognized in history as the “Merchant Prince of Yuma” for his vision and grit that sparked a string of businesses spanning multiple industries in Yuma County. Sanguinetti left an indelible mark as one of Yuma’s most influential change-makers.

Hosting private affairs in E. F. Sanguinetti’s charming rose garden is a century-old family tradition. Now, it is your turn to make history by exchanging vows at his home. Your guests will delight in private access to the Sanguinetti House Museum, surrounded by a fairytale garden in bloom. See for yourself why the Sanguinetti House Museum and Gardens is the jewel of historic Yuma.
