LOCAL CATERING

Hi there!

Thank you so much for considering us to host your next event! Northern Arizona has so much to offer you and your guests. It's easy to turn your event into a mini vacation for everyone.

To streamline the event production process, we have created a complete event planning experience which includes a three day experience for your guests (rehearsal dinner/welcome reception, wedding day & brunch). This over-arching guide ensures the planning process is inclusive, cost effective and you and your guests have a diverse experience exploring all the Verde Valley has to offer.

We start by exploring your vision for your overall event. Based on this discovery meeting, we will design a customized planning process that will include venue selection, cuisine customization, vendor team hiring, event design, logistics coordination and execution of your event.

We work with large network of seasoned, professional vendor partners with whom we have planned over 200+ weddings. This exceptional experience allows us to create a unique experience that is customized just for you.

We look forward to learning more about your vision for your event and helping you create a one of a kind experience you and your guests will remember for a lifetime.

All our best,
Jon & Casey

Signature Three Tier Destination Weddings

Planning your three day guest experience can be overwhelming. Villaggio and CGW have teamed up to give you and your guests a weekend to remember. It's our goal to provide you a variety of culinary experiences, creative event design and exciting wedding activities that create memories for a lifetime.

Rehearsal Dinner

Villaggio Venue is located in the Verde Valley, close to all the activities northern Arizona has to offer. The venue is 6,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor space with a light and bright ambiance.

The venue features an indoor/outdoor bar and large lawn with a stage for entertainment.

Your guests will enjoy our real wood fire pit and a fantastic event flow.

The venue can welcome up to 150 guests

Wedding Day

Our team's goal on your wedding day is to give you peace of mind.

The CGW & Villaggio Catering team have planned and produced events throughout northern Arizona.

Whether you are hosting your event at one of our partner venues or at a unique off site location, you can be assured an experienced team will execute your event details and serve a delightful cuisine experience for your guests to enjoy.

Farewell Brunch

Ending your wedding on a high note is key!

Let us work with you to craft the perfect grand finale to your wedding weekend.

Whether you dream of a casual mix and mingle open house or a delectable brunch experience, we will create the experience that will leave you and your guests wanting more.

The Planning Experience

We have a turn key planning experience we implement with every event we manage. Let us guide you through the process so you can relax and enjoy the creative process of planning your event.

Vision Discovery Meeting

Our journey starts with our vision discovery meeting. This is the meeting where we explore your vision for your wedding and identify the areas that matter most to you.

Venue

Selecting your venues for your event is a critical step in the planning process. Let us help you compare your favorite venues and estimate the cost of each venue to help you make the best decision for you.

Vendor Team

Hiring a professional vendor team is key to ensuring your wedding events flow smoothly. Let us guide you with our recommendations and support you as you make your final selections.

Event Design

Defining your design for your wedding can be daunting. There is so much choice. Let our design team work with your initial vision to help you flush out a design that is cohesive and expresses your taste and style.

Event Logistics

About two months prior to your event, we will schedule our final logistics meeting with you. In this meeting we will review our timeline, determine final details, layout, rentals and other vendor details. We will then coordinate these details with your vendor team leading up to your events.

Event Execution

Our goal is for you to be a guest at your wedding. Let our team make your dream come to life and flawlessly coordinate your events.

Contact us to schedule a complimentary consultation.

Preferred Vendor Partners

Villaggio and CGW have worked with these partners for years, we consider them to be a part of our extended team and we all work together to make your wedding dreams a reality.
