Things to Know:

1. Can we bring our own food/beverages?
 - a. Yes, you have the freedom to choose your own caterer, bring your own beverages, or have a favorite friend or relative prepare food for you event, or make your wedding cake! That way you can tailor your catering needs to your event budget. We also have a Preferred Vendor List that we are happy to share.
2. Can we start the event earlier than 5pm?
 - a. Typically we ask that you start your event after the museum closes. However, an Early Museum Closure fee may be applied upon request.
3. Can we have our event longer than 5hrs?
 - a. An Early Museum Closure fee and an Additional Hour/s fee can be applied upon request. Sound Ordinance is at 10pm, therefore, all music will need to be shut off at exactly 10pm.
4. Do you have parking available?
 - a. There is plenty of free parking around the museum, on Pier View, and also a Civic Center parking structure for use on the weekends.
5. Are we available to see the galleries during event?
 - a. When renting the Entire Museum, your guests will have access to our amazing exhibitions up until the time we start winding down. Smaller spaces are available for rent, but with limited access. No food/drinks are allowed in the galleries. Our number grids will be placed at the entrance of each gallery, and your guests are welcome to place their drinks on it, and then enjoy the art.
6. Can we leave rental items until the next day to be picked up?
 - a. Client is responsible to designate a family member and/or friend to ensure décor and personal items are removed from the venue after the event. Leftover items will not be saved or mailed out after an event unless those items are car keys or wallets. Items will be mailed at guest's expense. OMA is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or left items of the Client or any guest. A Pick-Up/Delivery Coordination Fee may be applied.
