30 days prior to your event date, Arcadia Farm must receive a copy of your event insurance. Your event insurance must include the following: Listing Historic Arcadia Farm and subsidiaries as the additional insured, your insurance must be for a minimum of $1 Million coverage, and the policy must include a provision of alcohol if you intend to have any alcohol on the premise during your stay.

Overnight

Only those registered to stay on property may remain on the premises after the front gate is closed each evening. All unregistered guests and vendors must vacate the property at the agreed upon ending time of the event. Once closed, the gate can only be opened for outside guests by the staff of the farm.

Guests in the Manor

Only those guests registered to stay overnight and those members of the wedding party are allowed inside the historic house during your event weekend. The reception pavilion and the lawns are provided to your invited guests. The manor will not be open for tours for your guests before, during, or after the reception. We strictly enforce this policy in order to protect the house from damages, protect your personal items that may be left in rooms or about the house, and to prevent any injuries due to unsupervised visitors in the historic home.

A second payment is due 120 days and then the final guest count and final payment is due 60 days prior to your special day.

Reception Centerpieces

The Reception

The on-site catering staff will tailor a menu specifically to fit your need, budget, idea, and dream.

Having amazing food at your event is one of the important elements of your wedding. However, it is also our philosophy that your event should be unique to you and your family.

The setting of Historic Arcadia Farm lends itself perfectly to simple menus such as BBQ, Taco Bars, and Pasta Bars just as easily as more defined menus such as 3-course dinners.

Most receptions at Arcadia are served buffet style with a simple drink station and a bar. Then add in your wedding cake as your dessert and your meal is complete and uncomplicated.

However, if your dream is a more formal affair, our experienced staff is more than capable of assisting you in creating the perfect menu, service setup, and design.

Assisting you in creating your first hosted party together is our goal and commitment.

The Rehearsal Dinner

The rehearsal dinner is a more intimate affair for the wedding party, close family, and traditionally out of town guests.

The greatest thing about the rehearsal dinner is that it can range from extremely casual to super formal, you decide. Making your rehearsal dinner unique to you and your family is key.

Some of our wedding packages include the rehearsal dinner space in the fee. But, even if you choose a package where it is not included, please inquire about hosting your dinner at the farm, which will be based solely on availability.

More often than not, wedding parties choosing our 2-day package will enlist the assistance of the wedding party to begin decorating after the rehearsal and dinner. It is certainly a great way to have some extra hands and get the jump on the busy ceremony day.

May we also suggest utilizing the farm to create an extraordinary rehearsal dinner experience. Dinner under the stars, a traditional southern porch party, or even a chuckwagon out under the trees. The options are endless.
