Catering for weddings, private parties, and corporate events, has made Charcuterations one of the best known charcuterie event coordinators in the Oklahoma City Metro Area, with a hard earned reputation for quality and service.

I'm Daymon, the creative force behind Charcuterations. Since 2018, I've been transforming tables into impressive feasts, one delectable piece of charcuterie at a time. This isn't just my job, it's my passion. I have a penchant for pairing flavors, styling presentations, and creating eye-catching displays that are not just meals, but culinary experiences. Each table I curate is guaranteed to bring an element of surprise and delight to your event - they're real showstoppers. When you're looking to take your gathering to the next level, remember - charcuterie is not just food, it's an art, and I'm here to paint the canvas!

If Oklahoma had mountains, I would stand atop them and holler "Charcuterations, is the most proficient, timely, and beautifully ran business around." Daymon was not only so pleasant to be around, he worked diligently and was so easy to communicate my baby shower desires with. Our shower guests just poured out compliments on how aesthetic our grazing table was. Charcuterations will always be our go to for any event we have from here on out. We are so happy.

Charcuterations has made some incredible spreads for us! From family gatherings, to Friendsgiving, thanksgiving, Christmas parties, even a very near and dear memorial service. They truly blew us away with the spread they created. So much detail, thought and consideration went into their set up, planning and purchasing. We were thrilled!

We used Charcuterations for our wedding and it was perfection! Our guests still rave about it (for real). It was a great to do for a Cocktail hour bc it was self serve. And it lasted ALL NIGHT. People kept grazing. I laugh because everyone told me that as a bride I wouldn't eat on my wedding day. I'm telling you right now ladies, you will eat if you get this board! 🍷🍷

Charcuterations created our individual charcuterie boxes for our prom. Charcuterations always had excellent communication with us. Everything went smoothly from contracts to drop off. Prices were comparable as well. I will definitely use them in the future!

My wife hosted a 70th birthday party for me and had it catered by Charcuterations. Daymon was very easy to work with and our guests were so impressed by, not only the quality of the food, but the presentation as well. I highly recommend Charcuterations for your next event.
