

HEARD-CRAIG CENTER for the ARTS

Venue Rental Details 2024

Kathryn Heard-Craig was a champion for the arts and educational organizations. She donated her home and created the Heard-Craig Center for the Arts in 1970. Kathryn's home is currently 124 years old the home was built in the year 1900.

Kathryn provided a space for organizations to gather and meet. Today there are over 26 clubs and over 1200 people gathering and learning.

Our pricing is a reflection of Kathryn's generosity and giving back to a community that was always good to her and good to others. We also provide value pricing so that Kathryn's non-profit charitable gift to the community remains a viable and vibrant part of the landscape of McKinney.
