FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I book a wedding date?

We require all potential couples to fill out our online questionnaire form so we can get to know you and your event desires. This will help us build a quote tailored to your needs.

You can do this before or after a venue tour. Once you have received your custom quote via email, we will do a phone conference to go over your package and preliminary booking details.

At that time, you may book an available wedding date with South Eden.

How much is the deposit?

Any package totaling $10,000 or more requires a deposit due of 30% of the total package, at time of booking. If the package is $9,999 OR less, requires a deposit due of 50% of the total package, at the time of booking.

Can you hold a certain date for me? A deposit is required to hold any date.

What taxes and fees are applied to my package separate from the base minimums?

Any and all food/beverage items require a 7% sales tax and a 20% culinary service fee.

There is also an event staff fee, glassware/flatware fee, and cake cutting fee.

Other fees may apply according to any custom event details and/or add on enhancements.

Is South Eden food/beverage catering required to book an event onsite? Yes.

Is a menu tasting included?

A private tasting for 2 to 4 guests is included in your wedding package to taste your final choices. This is scheduled based on our event schedule & is paired on the same day as your details meeting.

Do I need Wedding Insurance?

Yes, South Eden requires proof of wedding insurance to protect you and your wedding guests.

This is normally purchased online for about $80 to $250 total.

Do I need a day of coordinator?

Yes. You are required to have a professional Day of Coordinator for your event.

This will be the designated point of contact for South Eden venue/caterer as well as all outside vendors.

They also organize rehearsal of ceremonial practice the day before, event timeline/itinerary, & etc.

Please refer to our Preferred Vendors List for recommendations.

Can I add or change things on my package after I have already booked?

Yes! We recommend your package initially be tailored as close to your expected guest size and general desires as possible however, specific details related to your final menu choices, add on enhancements, layout choice, final guest count, etc. will be finalized through your included details meeting.

As long as you meet the minimums required for your date of booking, anything on your package is subject to change later on, EXCEPT venue space choices & venue date.

What is the rain plan for outdoor events or venue choices?

These options range depending on your layout, venue, and size of group.

Please view our Weather/Rain Plan policy listed on our venue contract for more information.

When must all event details be finalized?

Final headcount of guests & all other event details to be finalized one month before event date.
3 weeks before the event date, final payment is due.

What services are required vs. optional?

Mandatory Services:

- All Food & Beverage Catering (EXCEPT Wedding Cake)
- All Wine, Beer, & Champagne (South Eden can also do signature cocktails.)

Are there multiple weddings per day?

We pride ourselves on giving each couple the intimacy of being the only wedding that date reserved. There is a possibility that another non-wedding event could take place that day such as a rehearsal dinner, birthday party, etc. however, this would not affect your event or preparation in any way.

In this case, there is extensive preparations made to ensure no overlap between venues. There is also a possibility that overnight hotel guests could be staying at our hotel, varying on availability. Please inquire for special exclusivity pricing to close the entire property the day or weekend of your event.

Do I have access to the entire grounds for photos the day of?

Yes, you have access to the entire outside grounds for photos.

You would not have access to indoor venues that you have not rented the day of your event.

Can I take engagement photos onsite?

Yes, you have full access to the entire outside grounds for engagement photos.

You would not have access to indoor venues without special request & permission.

All photo shoots must still be scheduled, as our property is by appointment only.

What is the wedding venue lease timeframe?

Ceremony Venue rentals are a three hour time frame.

The three (3) hour time frame does NOT include setup time but, DOES include breakdown time. Cocktail Hour/Reception Venue rentals are a six hour time frame starting at the time Cocktail Hour begins.

The venue rental is not permitted to go over 12AM, without an additional venue fee, even if the six hour time frame has not been met.

The six (6) hour time frame does NOT include setup time but, DOES include breakdown time.

Any and all outside vendors/guests/ vendor items/personal items/etc. still occupying the venue after the 6 hour lease timeframe, will result in an additional fee charged to the host.
