When booking a Dj for your reception, you need someone who will go beyond just playing music and entertaining people. You need a master of ceremonies as well.

Reception format:

We take care of

- * Announcing the grand entrance of the bride and groom and the wedding party
For couples who want one, we play a background song during the introduction
- * Introducing the toasts to the newlyweds
- * Announcing the meal and excusing tables one by one if the meal is a buffet
Note; If someone is to offer a blessing before the meal, we introduce them

After the meal, we announce and coordinate the following

- * The formal dances; First Dance, Father-Daughter, Mother-Son, Wedding Party
- * A money dance if you are to have one (most couples do and guests enjoy them)
- * The bouquet toss for the single ladies
- * The garter removal and toss for the single men
- * The cutting of the wedding cake
- * Announcing the last dance and the departure of the newlyweds as needed

At times we take care of special announcements like

- * A birthday in the group that you want recognized
- * An anniversary being celebrated by one of your guests
- * A special song dedication
- * Introducing someone you want to offer a blessing before the meal
- * A game to use for giving away the centerpieces if you are doing so

And remember

- * Every couple that we Dj for has an appointment to go over their plans
- * Our format is completely flexible to your plans
- * Special requests are welcome from you and all of your guests
- * We are interactive DJs. We get people up, involved, & having a great time
