Comments from our valued clients:

This is the second year in a row that our organization has held a training function at the Holiday Inn Express, Kelowna. Each time, I have received excellent customer service from the Conference and Catering Manager. The training sessions included hotel rooms, meals, and meeting rooms over a one week event. Our organization had numerous changes, right down to the last minute, and Betti was always accommodating, cheerful and easy to deal with. I would definitely recommend the Holiday Inn Express, Kelowna for your next function.

The group thought the room was fantastic with all the natural light and lots of parking. They were also happy with the catering and said that they would recommend your facility for any upcoming offsite meetings that you would be able to fit us into. They also wanted us to pass along that they really appreciate how helpful you were.
